- Mandatory Meeting is Tuesday, January 13 at 7:00 PM at the Bradford County Extension Office. Location may change depending on the number of entries.

General Rules and Information for Exhibitors:

- The Bradford County Fair Association or the UF/IFAS Bradford/Union County Extension Office will assume no liability for the loss or injury to any goat and/or exhibitor participating in this show.
- Goats MUST remain on their trailer until the FDACS health inspector approves their health certificate and animals at check-in.
- FDACS requires all goats to be either ear tagged, ear tattooed, or microchipped for a health certificate.
- Goats are not allowed in any fair building or barn areas, only designated show area and holding area. Until time of show, exhibitors are expected to hold their animal in their trailer.
- Wash racks are not available for cleaning your goats, please do this prior to the show. All clipping and last-minute grooming must be done at your trailer, not in the fair barns. Exhibitors must provide their own generator.
- Exhibitors must provide their own feed, water, and hay for their animals.
- Exhibitors are responsible for the care and clean-up of any area used at the Bradford County Fairgrounds. Shavings, hay, manure, etc. MUST BE REMOVED BEFORE LEAVING THE GROUNDS!
- All goats must be shown with a leather chain collar in the Goat Show and Showmanship Contest. A rope halter or collar may be used in the PeeWee Show.
- Parents/guardians are not allowed in the show ring unless prior arrangements have been made with the show superintendent.
- Dairy goats must be dehorned. It is recommended that all other goats have their horns blunted (meaning no sharp edges).
- Junior, Intermediate & Senior exhibitors are required to wear 4-H or FFA attire. All exhibitors must wear black jeans and closed toe shoes.
- All exhibitors and families MUST help clean the arena, holding area, parking area, and walkways before signing out their premium money at the conclusion of the show.

Code of Conduct:

Exhibitors and adults are expected to adhere to the following rules of conduct at all fair sanctioned events. Failure to adhere to this could result in forfeiture of all premiums, awards and elimination or expulsion from participation in the current or future fair events.

- Abide by all Bradford Agricultural Fair rules and regulations.
- Consumption and/or possession of alcoholic beverages and drugs on fair property or being under the influence of such beverages is strictly forbidden.
- The use of profanity or fighting on fair property is forbidden.
- The possession of firearms by anyone under the age of 18 on fair property is forbidden. Adults must secure firearms in locked vehicles when left unattended.
- No open fires are permitted on fair property.
- Any intentional destruction or abuse of Fair property will be grounds for immediate expulsion from the fairgrounds and/or activities.
- No improper comments or conduct toward buyers, fair officials or volunteers will be tolerated.

SHOWS, DIVISIONS, AND AWARDS:

PeeWee Show: for exhibitors ages 5-7 (age as of September 1, 2025)

The PeeWee Show is a fun, non-competitive event where younger exhibitors can gain experience showing goats and receive participation awards.

- Exhibitors may have assistance from any one person they choose to help them in the ring, preferably an older youth 4-H or FFA member.
- Pee Wees will not be judged, but ALL exhibitors will receive a participation award.

Goat Show: for exhibitors ages 8 and up (age as of September 1, 2025)

In the Goat Show, the focus is on the goat's conformation, meaning how well its physical structure and body traits meet the breed standards.

- The judge will use the Modified Danish System, with each goat receiving a blue, red, or white ribbon based on its quality.
- The judge will rank all goats in each class determining the class winner.
- The judge will choose a Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion in each division.
- Divisions will include:
 - Dairy Breeding Does
 - Meat Breeding Does
 - Pygmy Breeding Does
 - Market Wethers
- Please note that classes and divisions may be combined due to lower participation. Exhibitors will be notified of these changes prior to the show.

Market Wethers Show & Sale Rules: for exhibitors ages 8 and up (age as of September 1, 2025)

- The general rules and information apply to this show and sale.
- Exhibitors are limited to 1 market wether entry.
- You are only able to sell 1 market animal in the Bradford Agricultural Fair or Union County

Livestock Association for the year 2026.

- Wethers must show no evidence of testicular tissue and be completely healed from castration.
- Must be shorn 3/8 inch or less above the knee and hock joints prior to entering the show.
- Market wethers must be meat goat breed influenced (examples of a meat goat breed is Boer and Kiko).
- Wethers must weigh in between 70-150 lbs. and must not exceed 15 months of age.
- The sale order will be a mixed animal sale. Each animal will be sold to the highest bidder.
- Exhibitors are responsible for soliciting their own buyers with buyer letters and/or personal visits.
- A 5-6% sale commission will be deducted from the exhibitor's proceeds.
- All exhibitors that sell a wether are required to write an appropriate thank you letter to all buyers.

Showmanship Contest: for exhibitors ages 8 and up (age as of September 1, 2025)

In the Showmanship Contest, the focus is on the exhibitor's ability to handle and present their goat. Exhibitors will be judged on their presentation, presentation of their animal, and proper fitting and grooming.

- The judge will place the top three showmen in each division.
- Divisions will include:
 - Junior Showmanship: Ages 8-10 (as of September 1, 2025)
 - Intermediate Showmanship: Ages 11-13 (as of September 1, 2025)
 - Senior Showmanship: Ages 14 and up (as of September 1, 2025)
